REPUBLICANS TO ASK AMENDMENT
OF SMITH LAWWant Cities Permitted to Levy For Sinking Fund
Charges.ENTIRE 10 MILL LEVY IS TO BE USED FOR EXPENSESBoth House and Senate
Committees Act Favorably on Proposal.

Columbus, Jan. 15.—Amendment of the Smith one per cent law to permit cities and other local taxing districts to levy for interest and sinking fund charges outside of the 10-mill limitation, was the program adopted by the Republican majority in the general assembly today, and which is expected to be approved by the Republican state central and advisory committees which are meeting here to consider taxation problems.

Decision to change the Smith law in order to enforce relief for financial distressed municipalities was reached at the caucus of Republicans of the house last night and senate Republicans this morning followed suit.

According to the program the joint taxation committee is to report out next week the Gardner bill which authorizes removal of interest and sinking fund charges from the interior limitation of the Smith law, thus allowing cities to use the entire 10 mill levy for operating purposes. Under the law as it stands a large amount of the 10 mills must be levied to pay off debts and interest on debt.

The program further contemplates the submission to the voters at the election next November of an amendment to the constitution fixing a one per cent limit on the estimate of the uniform rule in the people and exempting certain forms of personal property from taxation, thus paving the way for an income tax law at some future date.

This, in effect, would be a removal of the uniform rule in the people and exempting certain forms of personal property from taxation, thus paving the way for an income tax law at some future date.

Advocates of classification, unable to secure an out and out classification amendment favor this plan, it is said, and rural members who opposed classification will be satisfied, it is said if there is written into the constitution a limitation on tax on real estate.

There was much speculation among members of the assembly as to what the new taxation problem of the assembly. He has it in his power to veto any measure which the assembly may pass. Heretofore he has opposed all attempts to interfere with the Smith law.

Mayor Harry L. Davis of Cleveland, who is one of the advocates of the Smith law, sat in the meeting of the Republican advisory committee by special invitation Thursday.

None of the five women who have recently been appointed on the Republican advisory committee attended the meeting today although they had notice of the meeting.

The legislature was expected to take up the school revenue bill today and pass it. Both houses are expected to adjourn for the week late Thursday.

Following three hours of caucus, public members of the house last night, it was announced that a decision had been reached to support the Gardner bill which provides for the removal of interest and sinking fund charges from the interior limitations of the Smith one per cent law. Mayors of several cities and school officials have advocated that plan for years, declaring that it would afford financial relief in large measure because it would permit the taxing districts to levy the full 10 mills for operating purposes. The joint taxation committee composed of Democrats and Republicans will be asked to report out the Gardner bill today. It was said that the rural members who have been the strongest defenders of the Smith law would support the measure.

The Republican state central and advisory committee will meet in special session this morning to consider the (Continued on Page 11, Col. 4)

Proposed Bill to Con-

Lake to Ohio River.

Columbus, Jan. 15.—Unless the state of Ohio and communities take an interest in the project started by the federal government in building a barge canal from the great lakes to the Ohio river and show a willingness to co-operate they need not expect further appropriations from congress for the project, Congressman B. F. Welby, of Lima, told members of the legislative committee considering the project at a meeting last night.

Welby said Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York and other states had already acted on projects for the improvement of commerce and expressed regret that Ohio had done nothing. He expressed the belief that the federal government with the co-operation of the state would build not only one canal route from the lake to the river but three or four.

"That the 'corn-stalk brigade' in the legislature will oppose the bill which has been introduced in the legislature to create canal districts in furtherance of the project started by Congressman Welby was the statement made today by Representative John Chester of Piquette, a leader of the rural forces of the house.

HITCHCOCK AND
UNDERWOOD TIE
FOR LEADERSHIP

Democratic Senators Vote
19 to 19 In Caucus and Adjourn.

SENATOR SMITH RESERVES
HIS VOTE ON QUESTION

Secretary Glass May End
Tie When He Takes Senate Seat.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Democratic senators in caucus today failed to elect a leader. A deadlock on a tie vote developed between Senators Hitchcock, of Nebraska, and Underwood, of Alabama, and the caucus adjourned subject to call of the two candidates.

Two ballots were taken and the count on each was 19 to 19, with Senator Smith of Georgia, withholding his vote. The next caucus will be held after Secretary Glass, appointed Senator from stood to favor Underwood. The caucus Virginia, takes his seat. He is under-voted by a majority of one to invite Mr. Glass to today's meeting or allow his vote to be cast, but Senator Underwood decided not to press the matter.

Senator Underwood, in a statement, said that Senator Hitchcock's leadership of the minority in the peace treaty controversy was not involved and that the Nebraska senator would continue to have his loyal support on treaty questions.

The vote of Senator Smith would have broken the deadlock today, but the agreement to postpone final action until Secretary Glass was seated was said to have been reached without objection.

Forty senators were present, the absentees being Senators Swanson, Virginia, and Smith, of Arizona, who were paired, and Senator Johnson, of South Dakota. Senators Hitchcock and Underwood refrained from voting. "The result of the vote," Senator Underwood said, "does not interfere in any way with Senator Hitchcock's control or leadership in the treaty fight. He has my loyal support and will continue to have it, and I have elected today or should be elected to the future to the minority leadership. Senator Hitchcock will continue to lead the fight with reference to the treaty conditions and in the treaty fight, I have my hearty cooperation."

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, who voted for Senator Hitchcock, also announced after the conference that determination of the question of minority leadership had nothing whatever to do with the leadership in the treaty fight.

They demanded $55 for a pint of blood, $30 more than they received two weeks ago, since which time the price has increased to $40. Student nurses responded as strike breakers.

Two hours later the nurses were attending a clinic. The strike was broken. Professional blood donors were on the job today at the old wage.

NORTH AND SOUTH M. E.
CHURCHES MAY UNITE

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 15.—Clergymen and laymen representing six million Methodist Episcopalians of the country attended the meeting which began here today of the joint commission of the Methodist Episcopal churches, North and South, which has as its object unification of the two wings of the church. That the merger would be agreed upon immediately appeared to be a foregone conclusion among the delegates.

In addition to the unification delegation from the northern church, headed by Bishop W. F. McDowell, Washington, and that of the southern faction in charge of Bishop Edwin Moulton, Dallas, Texas, a hundred or more church paper editors attended the sessions. The meeting, however, was not open to the public.

The joint commission is meeting in the Fourth Street Methodist Episcopal church. South. The announcement that came 74 years ago that owing to a disagreement on the slavery question, a breach had come about an alliance, fourth there would be Northern and Southern branches of the church.

The "secession" came in 1845, after a controversy lasting two years over a negro slave girl owned by the wife of Bishop Andrews, Georgia. Northern congregations argued that Bishop Andrews should be removed for that reason. Southern congregations contended that he had been appointed for life by a church and could not be ousted.

NO DEMONSTRATION TO ACCOMPANY BURIALS

London, Jan. 15.—Berlin was completely quiet Wednesday, according to a wireless dispatch from the German capital. The streets were working normally and the railway and tram services were not interrupted.

Strong indignation is expressed in every branch of industry at the unscrupulousness of the Independent Socialists, the dispatch adds, because the masses were driven forward to face the guns of the soldiers. It is announced that the Berlin government will not permit any demonstration on the occasion of the burial of the victims of Tuesday's rioting.

SOCIALISTS INDIGNANT
AT GOVT. ATTITUDE

London, Jan. 15.—Fears are expressed in diplomatic dispatches received here that Berlin imbroglio may spread throughout Germany and even to Vienna through the agency of the Communists, this element using the dispatch adds, because the masses by representing those killed as martyrs to the cause of the people.

Vienna, it is pointed out, will be likely to furnish fertile ground for the agitators to the great unrest that already exists due to Communist disorders are reported outside of Berlin.

The advice in analyzing the upheaval in Berlin point to its original cause as the dissatisfaction of the Independent Socialists over the failure of the government to provide a method for the establishment of the workmen's councils called for by the constitution but give the immediate cause as indignation at the attitude of the government towards strikers. This resulted in the organization of the great demonstration in front of the Reichstag building. The tolerance that followed, however, is believed to have been due to Communist agents who took advantage of the assembly, and working on mob psychology started the riot which ended so disastrously.

Crossing—Men Not Dan-

W. H. Shuckhart and James Thompson, were knocked unconscious and had a narrow escape from death when a southbound B. & O. train struck a truck belonging to the Newark Natural Gas company at the Stevens street crossing.

The accident happened at about 8 o'clock and neither of the men have a clear conception of just how it happened.

The yard engine had just cleared the tracks and while the men saw the approaching train, it was too late to misjudge the distance and thought they could get across the track. The truck was demolished and both men were thrown out. The engine swept the truck off the track, which probably saved the men's lives.

The machine was driven by Shuckhart who was cut and bruised, but who regained consciousness first. Thompson, who was with him was badly cut and lacerated about the head. One eye was badly cut. The yard engine crew went to their assistance and the Bradley ambulance was called and Thompson was removed to the City Hospital. He was later taken to his home in River street and is feeling comfortable today. Shuckhart who lives in South Sixth street was able to be at work today.

"The Greatest Question." Just as the individual must necessarily have a predominant characteristic, so must a work of art, an institution or a motion picture have a theme. In my estimation, a production without a theme is a production without a mission—and something without a mission is an injustice to a public that looks confidently to the producer to bring forth entertainment in line with average intelligence.

When "The Greatest Question," my initial attraction for the First National Exhibitors' Circuit, is seen at the Auditorium theater, beginning today, something which I feel has not before been brought to the public in the way of entertainment will be offered, says D. W. Griffith. It will be a matter of interest to me to learn just how many individuals in the audiences which see this picture will agree with me as to "the greatest question." In this day and time when the griefs of thousands of mothers have not yet healed from the last of a War that assuredly there is not greater problem in the public mind than that of the Hereafter.

JUSTICE OF DEPORTATION.

The Reds now being deported to their home countries, are aliens who have not merely been working to overturn the government that the American people cherish as dearer than their lives, but they have violated the fundamental principle of "Mind your own business."

If they wished to overturn their own government at home, the American people would not undertake to prevent them. They were admitted to this country on the supposition that they were peaceable citizens who would conform to the customs and habits of the United States. They refused to identify themselves with America by taking steps for naturalization, yet seek to butt into the affairs of this country, and overturn its government. They would thus destroy the civilization that gave them opportunities in life. They have double crossed the people who welcomed them so freely to their shores, and have bit the hand that fed them.

The anarchist party has encouraged the dirty crime of sending bombs by mail and express, by which innocent and hard-working people have lost life or limb. Many who have not gone so far as that, have done their best to incite mob action and riot.

The man who exhorts others to riot and murder, is as bad as the man who actually takes the gun and shoots. The government would be in a state of paralysis, if it must wait until mobs actually entered the seats of authority. The time to act is when people urge the mob to rise and seize power by force.

The parlor bolsheviks should state why the man who tells another to seize power with a gun and by physical force, is any better than the man who actually does it. These people will mostly be sent back to Russia where they came from, where the principles which they profess are put in practice. They should therefore be very glad to go.

COMMUNITY HOUSES.

Since the armistice something over 250 community houses have been put up or started as memorials to the war heroes. The big city expects its grand marble or granite memorial, and the country village its simple little village hall. Both are an inspiring reminder of soldier sacrifice that will also render useful service to the community for generations.

It is fitting that the memorials to the soldiers should take the form of such a building. If a town can get the soldier spirit of service into its community life, it will accomplish social advancement comparable in results to the great deeds achieved by the war heroes.

Newark needs a community center where all elements of the people shall come closer to each other, and learn to work together for civic ends. When this spirit of unity prevails, a town is sure to go ahead. What has become of the plan to erect a soldier's memorial here in Newark.

It is claimed the railroads have degenerated, but anyway there are two streaks of rust left in most places.

The candidates are not merely throwing their hats in the ring, but they are talking through them.

WOMAN'S GIFT FOR BUSINESS.

Lady Rhonda, an Englishwoman now visiting in this country and who is associated with 27 different business enterprises, feels that women have many gifts qualifying them for business success if they could be developed. Men, she says, are interested predominantly in mechanical things, while women have a gift for personal relations.

She believes that women's superior grasp of personal relations is an invaluable business gift.

A business concern can buy plenty of mechanical ability, but it often goes to wreck on account of failure to understand people, and adjust itself to human relations. The time may come when every business corporation will have its women directors and managers, for their finer sense of personal relations.

The boys are perfectly willing the girls should exercise the privilege of Leap Year, by inviting them to the ice cream joints and the picture shows and paying the bills.

There has so far been no public demand that the government take pains to pick out an exceptionally seaworthy vessel to ship the Reds home in.

Automobile shows come on soon, and a lot of the people who resolutely left their check books behind them, will soon be telegraphing home for funds.

Another rise in one of the necessities of life was indicated when it was announced that the baseball players are going to demand higher salaries.

A New York stenographer has made a world's record of 304 words a minute, but it is not clear whether he could keep up with a soap box orator.

The Reds weep bitterly at the idea of being deported to a country where their principles are put into practice.

Motto of the politicians: Never spend a cent when a dollar will do equally well.

Spirit of the Press

The Path to Peace.
The pressure of public opinion is beginning to tell in the Senate contrary to the treaty. That the country wants the treaty and league of nations covenant approved without emasculating reservations has long been apparent. Senators now show an inclination to bow to popular sentiment on Roosevelt's treaty might easily have been ratified before the holiday adjournment, had majority and minority leaders been willing to swallow their pride momentarily and put through a program of conciliation already agreed to in principle. The first major accomplishment of the Senate after reconvening in the new year should be the passage of a ratification resolution—a resolution altering the treaty sufficiently to command a constitutional majority, but not enough to vitiate its vital principles. The way to such a result is so plain that no one can plead ignorance of it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Demand for Universal Training.
That enthusiastic national demand for universal military training which was to follow the return of nearly 4,000,000 troops to civil life—where is it? Advocates of drill used to speak with Rooseveltian intensity of a year as just what our youths needed. The Chamberlain, who had descended to six months. Now a Senate sub-committee under the stalwart Wadsworth timorously brings forth a measure for four months—and the House committee rejects compulsory training altogether. An energetic opposition in some quarters may discourage Congressmen. Senator Capper can easily lend Wadsworth the resolution of Western organizations against compulsory service. Members of the House, with an election in the offing, have means of their own to learn what the country wants.—New York Evening Post.

Had to Yield to Lodge.
Official announcement is made at Washington that "Norman Hapgood is no longer American minister to Denmark." The Senate did not confirm his nomination before the end of the special session, and he has not been given a recess appointment by President Wilson; therefore his commission with the government has come to an end. It is reported that the "chance" of Mr. Hapgood from Denmark was due to Mr. Lodge's insistence, on discovering Mr. Hapgood's activities in the cause of Russian Bolshevism. It would be difficult to convince the average administration organ that the administration would be guilty under any circumstances, of paying the slightest attention to any suggestion that might be made by the Massachusetts Democrat.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

THE POLITICAL PORTIA OF 1920

As a matter of fact, an intelligent person, looking out of his eyes and hearing in his ears, with a smile on his face all the time, will get more true education than many another in a life of heroic vigils. There is certainly some chill and arid knowledge to be found upon the summits of formal and laborious science; but it is all round about you, and for the trouble of looking, that you will acquire the warm and pulsating facts of life.—R. She went rite up to Doc, not a-paying no attention to me at all an' says she, "Doctor, I think I'm entitled to a commission," she says. "Commission?" says Doc, puzzled-like. "What for?" he says. "Why," says she, "all the children in this town got the measles from my baby," says she.

Did You Know?
That Pompey's Pillar is the name of a celebrated column standing in the neighborhood of Alexandria? It stands upon an eminence about 1,500 feet south of the walls of the city. It is a Corinthian monolith of red granite and stands upon a pedestal. Its total height is 98 feet, 9 inches, and it is 29 feet, 8 inches in circumference. The shaft, which is 72 feet high, is well executed. On the summit is a circular depression for the base of a statue, which in some old drawings is represented standing on it.

Married Strangers

A powerful story dealing with a problem being worked out in thousands of American homes to-day—that of the husband and wife who find they grew apart while the man was off to war.

LII.—The Siren at Work.

Captain Moore grinned and wrung Keith's hand delightedly.

"Didn't expect to see me so soon again, did you? Landed a job in Texas that brought me here."

"How delightful. Do you like it?" "I didn't—until tonight," he replied with a twinkling eye. "Hello, old man," he turned to Bennett with a heavy handclasp. "How's civilian life?"

Bennett greeted his former brother officer without too great enthusiasm and presented him to Betty Arnold with a hint of patronage which Keith resented. Moore had met Mrs. Arnold and Anita, and devoted himself to her during the extraordinarily long intermission.

He returned at the end of the act and when finally the play was over, Mrs. Arnold extended an invitation to him and several other young men to accompany them home for supper.

The engrossing tale a tete between Betty Arnold and Bennett had become so noticeable that Keith was grateful to Moore's presence. He had always been very fond of him, and under the lash of some emotion which she did not admit as jealousy, she found her old friend more desirable than ever.

After a buffet supper, the party adjourned to the Arnold drawing room for coffee. Anita went to the piano and began to weave soft Hawaiian melodies, her fingers scintillating with jewels under the glow of a tall shaded lamp. Keith sat in a deep chair, slightly in the shadow with Tom Moore, beside her, so engrossed that he all but turned his back upon the rest.

But Betty dominated the party. She had cast her languor from her and came alive like a bazaar butterfly that has drowsed through a summer afternoon on a swaying flower and suddenly quivers with life and flutters away. She talked with quick graceful gestures of her small hands, and her feet were rarely on the floor; with a swift movement of her supple body she would curl into the depths of the big divan where she was sitting, clasping her knees with her hands, or extend

Milady's Boudoir

Shampoo for the Hair.
Brunettes should always use a shampoo that contains all of the whites of eggs. They are excellent for dark hair, stimulating the growth and improving the luster. Never forget to brush the hair well after shampooing for this will impart a gloss not to be secured in any other manner. Sun and air the scalp every day if you possibly can. This can be done in front of an open window. Brush and comb each strand separately. Brush the hair at night again and braid it before retiring.

Blonde hair, unless shampooed very carefully, will darken with age. Egg shampoo is not good for light hair, for it contains sulphur which will darken it more rapidly. Oil of any kind, should be used unless absolutely necessary. An excellent shampoo for blonde hair is a soap jelly. This is made by shaving a cake of white castile soap into a caucup and dissolving it into a pint of boiling water. Keep the mixture warm until the soap has dissolved, then pour the liquid into a wide mouthed jar and cover it in a cool place. When shampooing the hair use a quarter of a teaspoon of bicarbonate of soda to each teaspoon of the soap jelly. If you find the soda is too drying use only every other time. Do not comb the hair by artificial heat as this will cause it to lose its sheen and texture. Rub the scalp briskly but gently with a warm towel to stimulate circulation.

and then sit in the sunlight and air if possible. Separate the strands of the hair so that each portion will receive its share of the sun bath and aiding. This manner of drying the hair requires a much longer time, but the softness and luster of it in the end will reward you for the extra time spent.

Easy to Make This
Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of pine in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup.

Now, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly. You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight; or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed and irritated lining of the throat and chest. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pine is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs. Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pine" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Our Boys and Girls

Children think much more rapidly than the limited vocabulary allows them to express their thoughts. They seem with scintillating and not always vain imaginings and are wont to impatiently try to crowd a mass of a thousand thoughts and experiences into a few syllables. This only too often explains their anxious stuttering. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance to have your children thinkers and who learn to speak slowly and without interruption.

The impulsive, volatile boy, who rushes headlong into the dining room and tries, between gulps of food, to tell you about the doings of the day, is the bickard Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in music and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Mary Klaus, Susie Brooks, Lucile Wright, Grace Hendrick, Mabel Moore, Mabel Anderson, Etelle Swan, Minnie McNelly, Myrtle Sisk, Louise Neibling, Gretefman, Della Barker, Claire Claggett, Mabel Fairall, Rachel Wintermute, Mary East, Helen Andersen, Elizabeth Dougherty, Helen Doughty, Messrs. John Glasmeier, John Glasmeier Jr., Charles Glasmeier and the hostess.

It is a good idea to teach children that a toothpick should not be employed in public than a toothbrush. If you have neglected this very important item in their education, instruct them now to attend to such matters in private. If they say that well dressed men and women commit this offense, assure them that bad learning in their youth made them ignorant of this breach of good manners.

Everyday Etiquette

"Will you kindly tell me if it is proper to have long sleeves and a low neck in an afternoon dress?" was Mrs. A's question to her aunt.

"It is quite usual just now for a young lady to have an afternoon gown made with either long or short sleeves and a fairly low neck," helped her aunt.

Burial of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swank North Buena Vista street was made in Cedar Hill cemetery today.George Sellars.
Funeral services for George Sellars, who died Monday at the City Hospital were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of his son Walter Sellars, Buckeye Lane. Burial will be made in Hebron cemetery.Mrs. Louisa Billman.
In loving remembrance of Mrs. Louisa V. Billman, beloved wife of Harvey Billman, who died January 15, 1917.In the greenwoods softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
In the silent, lonely grave.Peaceful be your sleep, dear mother,
It is sweet to breathe your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.You shall never be forgotten,
Never from our memory fade,
Loving hearts will always linger,
Around the grave, where you are laid.It is three years, mother, dear, since you left us,
And we miss you more and more,
Our hearts are filled with sadness,
For your sweet smile we see no more.We miss your coming footsteps,
We miss you everywhere,
Life is not what it used to be,
Since our dear mother is not here.God in his wisdom hath recalled,
The beloved one he hath given,
And though on earth her body lies,
Her soul is safe in Heaven.Soft and bright the stars are shining
On a lovely grave,
Where lies the one we loved so dearly,
Whom we tried so hard, but could not save.Husband, Daughters and Son

—"I Might Be Your Once In A While" 85c

These are two unusually good fox trots. They have splendid exhilarating rhythms, but their great charm is in their smooth, flowing melody, and in the romantic style in which they are given. "Patches" for variety of effect, introduces two pianos. In "I might be your once in a while" there are serenade-like passages of great beauty in which brass instruments are prominent and there are delightful bell and trap effects.

HIGH TRIBUTE IS PAID TO DOUGHBOYSouvenir Pamphlet From French Government to American Soldier Gives Them Credit For Victory.

Soldiers of the American army are credited by the French government with being largely instrumental in winning the victory which came to the arms of right and justice on November 11, 1918, when the armistice Germany begged, was granted. This appears in a souvenir pamphlet dedicated to the American soldiers who fought overseas and which will soon be presented through the Newark post of the American legion to every American soldier who saw service with the American expeditionary forces and who did not receive one before leaving France.

The memorial voices the feeling of France to America and America's noble sons who were ever there, not omitting those who gave their all for liberty. In an eloquent introduction, appears this high tribute to American soldiers.
At the most critical moment of the struggle which had lasted for three years against German imperialism, you came as strong youths into a country where the young had perished. To the weeping you brought a smile. To those who had been despoiled your generosity restored hope, to the fatherless children you offered joy. The summing up of these recollections must remain an inspiration to you and to those who follow you, in all future efforts.

Often marching toward dusk, along some valley road in France you have watched the lights as they began to shine out from the windows of the little farm houses, while the mist gradually enveloped all but the shadowy forms of objects almost indistinguishable. Let it be so in your minds when you think of France—remember the innumerable small houses which almost two million men have died to save, and the hearths where a fire still burns, though the roofs which left it will never return. If any harsh thoughts remain, let the mist unfold all that is not the romance of this war—the drawing together in fraternal love of those who have suffered. This is the prayer of France. Together with the gratitude of her living, there is the stirring memory of her dead. It carried its message to you, as a blessing on those who, because of your gallant sacrifices, shall not have given their lives in vain.

The memorial in fact is a history in tabloid form of America's participation in the war beginning with Cantigny where the brilliant First Division made history, to the attack on the heights of Meuse just before the armistice was granted.
A supply of these memorials will be shipped to Newark Post 85 through the Recruiting Service of the Army. On receipt they will be issued by Newark Post to every man entitled to receive it.LAUDS AMERICA'S
LOVE OF CONCERTS

M. Jean Verd.

Praise for the attitude of the American people toward concerts is expressed by M. Jean Verd, who recently arrived in the U. S. to become one of the master instructors in the pianoforte department of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. "The attitude is that of respect and reverence," he says.

PROMISE INTERESTING

An announcement of unusual interest will feature the forum dinner of the Chamber of Commerce, which will be held at 6 o'clock Friday evening at the Plymouth Congregational church. The members are invited to bring their wives and friends. The committee in charge has asked that all desiring to attend call the Chamber of Commerce, 1307, and make reservation. The committee hopes that a large attendance will make the dinner an enthusiastic meeting and many questions of interest will be discussed.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Jan. 13.—Announcement that 75 per cent of the grain cars sent to the elevators here had been loaded with wheat was a source of much difference of opinion today among corn dealers. Opening prices, which ranged from a quarter cent off to a half cent advance, with May, $1.33 to 1.33 3/4, and July $1.31 3/4 to 1.32, were followed by moderate general upturns, and then by a setback all around to well below yesterday's finish.
Oats paralleled the action of corn. After opening unchanged to 1-8c higher, including May at 81 7/8 to 82 1-8c, the market underwent considerable of a sag.

Wall Street.
New York, Jan. 13.—The tone of the stock market was strong at the active opening of today's session although there was yet more stringent money rates continued to hang over the financial market. Cattle and motors, however, a few of weakness recorded substantial rises with several of the representatives of steel, equipments and shipping advanced. Further changes within the half hour were mainly at advance quotations.
The early advance assumed further momentum, especially among motors, steel, equipments and shipping (General Motors, United States Rubber, American Locomotive, American International, etc.) and American International were the outstanding features at gains of 2 to 3 points. Rails kept in the back

Well-Preserved Water Pipes.

Wooden water pipes that were used from the time of the Revolution until the fire of 1872 to carry water into Boston have lately been unearthed and are found to be in a good state of preservation. A coin of the date 1808 in an almost perfect condition was found near one of the pipes, establishing, it would seem, the date at which the pipe was laid.
Keep Accounts.
Forming is a business the same as banking or running a mercantile establishment. There are products to be sold and articles to be bought. The keeping of a record of these and determining the relation of the outgo to the income are important considerations on every farm. The farmer should know what his income is and just how he is disposing of it. He can know this only by keeping books and the first of the new year is the proper time to begin.—Exchange.
The Girl in Business.
The big difference between young men and women in business is that the former know they have many years of work ahead, while the latter often feel that their sojourn in the business world is to be temporary. Only to the extent that a girl considers her work as a lifetime affair, and accordingly devotes her whole heart and soul to it, can she succeed in rising above the rank and file.—Forbes Magazine.
John had been the only child in the family for five years, when one day a little baby sister came. Several weeks later the parents were talking about the little baby, saying how sweet she was and how glad they were to have a little girl. John, listening, said: "Oh, mother, wouldn't it be a good joke on you if sister turned out to be a boy?"
egg-laying mammal.
In Tarsman there is a species of mammals, the females of which lay eggs, from which the young are hatched like the young of birds. This is perhaps of the lowest order of mammals. They are about the size of a baby porcupine, are covered with strong spines set thickly all over their skins, and by way of a nose they have a slender and narrow beak of white horn.
Toe and heel covers have been patented to enable women to wear their lightest slippers out of doors without injury to the material.

Florence was visiting her grandmother and maiden aunt. The former was indulgent, while the latter was inclined to be severe. One day while grandma had gone shopping, Florence was left to the mercies of her aunt, to whom it appeared she was unusually naughty. "Upon being told that she would get spanked if she did not behave, she looked up at aunt and with tears in her voice, said: "I'm going to cry when my grandma comes back."

THE WORD OPTOMETRIST

THE accepted pronunciation is Opt-om-e-trist, with the accent on the second syllable. The word means one who is skilled in the detection and correction of errors of vision by the aid of glasses. An Optometrist is required to pass a strict examination before he is permitted to practice. We have qualified to practice Optometry, and have a service that is up to the minute.

HOUSE SAYS SEDITION BILL IS TOO DRASTIC

Washington, Jan. 23.—The Sterling anti-sedition bill, passed by the senate last Saturday, was set aside yesterday by the house judiciary committee which substituted for it the house measure, originally drawn by Attorney General Palmer. Members said the senate bill was too drastic in some of its provisions. Action of the committee forecasts extended conference discussion should the house uphold it, before final enactment of a sedition measure. The house bill provides for the death penalty in cases where agitation against the government has resulted in loss of life.

JANUARY ECONOMY SALE!

We are not sacrificing these winter coats because we are able to duplicate them for less in the market; on the contrary we don't believe that it is possible to buy them EVEN AT WHOLESALE TODAY AT THE PRICES WE ARE QUOTING. But we have a too big A STOCK OF WINTER COATS IN THE HOUSE and we are determined to reduce the stock regardless of cost. Some merchants think it's more profitable to them to hold garments than to sell them. We don't. We want action. Buying and selling is the life of this store, and we are never worried about the future. We want to do business NOW.

World Famous Commodities

MADE AND MANUFACTURED IN NEWARK BY THE

Newark Stamping and Foundry Company

PREFERRED STOCK, NON-ASSESSABLE, TAX FREE IN OHIO, CUMULATIVE, PAYING SEVEN PER CENT PER ANNUM, IS NOW BEING SOLD AT PAR BY

The J. N. PUGH CO.

WHY THESE PRODUCTS ARE MARKETABLE.

MAY-FIEBERGER FURNACE

Established in Akron in 1867, purchased last year by the Newark Stamping and Foundry company, including the good will of the company. The local company by building a new addition will attempt to keep up with the orders that exceed the present output.

A central heating plant is the natural tendency. Furnaces are installed in homes, churches, halls, schools.

THOMPSON INDESTRUCTIBLE ROSE CLAMP

Output now 50,000 a day. Is the only clamp constructed in two distinct parts, hence easy of adjustment. The following are some of the automobiles using this clamp: Ford, Paige, Allen, Overland, Saxon, Dodge. Seventy-five per cent of the cars made use this clamp, and ninety per cent of the jobbers buy it.

Clamp used also on locomotives, tractors—any place where rubber hose is to be clamped to metal.

EXPANSION IS NECESSARY, if the company is to keep up with the unprecedented demand for its products. A $75,000 order for May-Fieberger from one of the distributors was received this week.

YOUR MONEY INVESTED in the preferred stock of this company will help build a $25,000 concrete warehouse to be used for storage of raw materials, and will provide more factory and foundry room.

THE NEWARK STAMPING AND FOUNDRY COMPANY owns all its buildings, real estate and equipment. Its products are thoroughly marketable, demand exceeds the output—hence a safe, conservative investment—moreover a Newark Concern.

HOUSTONIA AIDS NATURE'S OILING OF ACHEY JOINTS

When joints twinge and throb and pain it's sure that nature has been unable to keep the body in proper trim. Then the thing to do is give nature a help and yourself relief with a gentle massage of Houstonia. This soothing liniment penetrates to the very cause of the trouble and quickly ends your pain.

Your home should never be without Houstonia, the wonderful remedy that is more than an ordinary liniment. Houstonia relieves not by counter irritation but by penetration to the source of pain in a way that makes relief permanent. It also contains special antiseptic ingredients of unusually healing qualities found in no other liniment, and is the safest remedy you can use on cuts, bruises, burns, scalds and all sore spots. Ask your druggist for House-tone-a-ah (The Original Jones' Liniment) with Dr. Jones' picture on the yellow label. 25c., 50c and $1.00. The Dr. J. C. Jones Co., So. Charleston, O.

KEEP WATCH ON YOUR STOMACH FOR HEALTH

It may seem strange that pains in the head or aches in the joints are due to trouble with the stomach. But nine times out of ten these can be traced to stomach or bowel trouble. The poisonous wastes that should pass out of the body clog up and are absorbed into the blood. This carries them to every part of the body. Muddy complexion, bad breath, nervousness, dizziness, and even cold hands and feet can be eliminated by proper regulation of the stomach and bowels.

If you have any of the troubles described above you should use Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation. It is guaranteed to relieve or your $1.25 will be refunded. The Parker Medicine Co., Athens, Ohio.

AMUSEMENTS

at the Shubert-Alvin after a long run in New York where it made the Goddess of Liberty giggle so that she nearly dropped her torch. Sometime, somewhere, the fellows who launch stage pieces will send down the ways a better all-around show than "Sometime," but the smoke of its funnels does not seem to be visible on the horizon. "Sometime," in the first place, is not overdone. There does not seem to be any exaggeration in it. Tinney and several others provide enough fun to force the laughter out of your nose and ears. There is a charming, tastefully attired chorus; there is splendid scenery; there is a rainbow tinted romance running right through and there is enough good music to keep the bunch round the hearth humming for sometime. The music by Rudolph Friml is delightful. Three pieces, "Sometime," "Keep On Smiling" and "Baby Doo," are the kind that remain after a show departs.—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

This attraction, now in Pittsburgh, comes to the Auditorium next Wednesday night.

ALHAMBRA
A Misfit Earl.

Louis Bennisson's latest Betzwood-Goldwyn production, "A Misfit Earl," was written by Wilson Bayley and directed by Ira M. Lowry. The photographer was Davide Calcegni. Their united efforts have resulted in a typical Bennisson picture, with the smiling cowboy star placed in a series of unusual situations. The picture will be presented at the Alhambra theater, beginning today and running over Saturday and is lively and humorous enough to please the most exacting picture goers.

Among the many humorous situations which follow each other is one in which Louis Bennisson is placed in an English castle and expected to dine alone. He soon jumps up in disgust, runs out to the servants' hall and has a good time with help. On other occasions he proves his shrewdness and the sharpness of his wit by out-manoeuvring his royal cousin in his attempt to swindle him of his legal share of the family estate.

An excellent cast has been selected to support Louis Bennisson in "A Misfit Earl." Olive Adams plays the role of a demure English girl, who recognizes true worth in the rough westerner with insinuating charm and grace. Little Samuel Ross is the boy cousin of the hero, for whose sake the hero goes to England to claim a share in the family estate for the American branch of the family. The English earl is capably played by Charles Brandt and Neil Moran, who has appeared in several former Bennisson productions, has the role of an English lawyer who takes sides with the American. Others in the cast are Ida Waterman, Herbert Standing and Barbara Allen.

The music is by Louis A. Hirsh, who wrote the music for "Going Up" coming to the Auditorium soon.

"Desert Gold" originally booked for three days will only have a two day showing in Newark next week, for the musical show "The Grass Widow" has taken one of its days.

Louis Bennisson in "The Misfit Earl" is a good bet at the Alhambra for the three days beginning today. Added features are also shown. Friday and Saturday Prizma is seen.

D. W. Griffith, The Master Maker of The Movies, offers at the Auditorium his wonderful First National Feature "The Greater Question." Lillian Gish and Robert Harron and others are seen in the cast.

PREPARE FIELD FOR ICE RINK
Boy Scout and "Y" Leader Join Forces to Make Skating Place for Newark Folks.

Only low temperature is now needed to bring into realization a dream of the city of Newark. The city of Newark is now preparing the field for an outdoor ice rink at White Athletic field. This afternoon, two score Boy Scouts under the direction of Scout Executive K. L. Brown, reported at White field after school to prepare the ground for flooding tonight.

Brown called for volunteers from among the scouts who attended the court of honor meeting last night and nearly 50 responded. They were directed to report at the field with shovels to throw up a snow bank around the field.

Necessary arrangements have been made to flood the field when it is in position to hold water.

Brown, joined forces with W. L. Geisler of the Y. M. C. A. industrial department in an effort to put over the rink proposition. The two men are directing the work of banking the field.

If the weather men will hold their weather for a few days the place will be ready for the lovers of ice skating.

COURT HOLDS LIFE INSURANCE MUST BE PAID
In a decision rendered by Judge Kyle in the case of Frush against the Ohio State Life Insurance company, the court holds that the plaintiff shall receive the full amount of life insurance named in the policy which he carried. The company had refused to pay the amount of the policy because the defendant died in the military service while the policy contained a clause making it void if the policy holder engaged in the military service.

The policy holder was drafted into the service, served in a non-combatant branch and contracted influenza, from which he died. The beneficiary sued to collect the amount of the policy $1,000.

BUYS SCHALLER PLACE TO OPEN BIG POOL ROOM

Bowling Alleys Will Be Installed In Rear of Room Which Will Be Remodeled.

Cleveland interests today purchased the Old Homestead, in West Main street, owned and managed by Charles Schaller. The new owners bought out the Schaller interests and intend to remodel the building into the largest and most attractive pool parlors in the state.

The transaction makes the passing from activity of one of the older business concerns of the city. A restaurant and saloon has been on the site for many years, and it has been under the Schaller management for about 20 years.

The purchase price for the Old Homestead was $7,500 and the lease with the Consumers Products company for the building is for a period of five years.

The new owners will expend $20,000 for improvements and for remodeling. An addition will be erected at the rear of the building and the highest grade bowling alleys will be installed. Mr. Max Grossman, known over the country as an ex-champion pool player is in the city, and will manage the parlors.

The remodeling will start at once and eight new pool tables and two billiard tables, which have been shipped, will be in place in a few days. The old tables will be removed.

The third floor of the building which has never been finished will be finished and equipped to give pool exhibitions. The second floor will be devoted to billiard exhibitions. The best talent in pool and billiard players in the country will be brought to the city.

The first floor will also be remodeled and redecorated and used for general playing purposes. It has not been decided by the company as to whether the soft drink department will be continued or not.

R. Kopperman, of Cleveland, well known to the pool and billiard fraternity, is one of the men interested in the new venture.

NEW FOUND GUILTY.
Los Angeles, Calif. Jan. 15.—The jury returned a verdict of murder in the second degree in the case of Harry S. New here today. New was charged with the murder of Miss Freda Lesser in July.

Free Hot Water.
Sarah was invited with her older sister to take tea with a friend of her mother. The little girl was anxious to do her sister credit, but after sampling a piece of cake which she had taken upon her plate was unable to eat it because she did not like it. Her hostess, noticing this, said: "Why, Sarah, you haven't eaten your cake!" Drawing a long breath and not wishing to hurt her friend's feelings Sarah replied: "No, it is so good, I can't."

Free Hot Water.
Free hot water for hot drinks at picnics or for any other use is served to the public at a recreation park in Toronto from a gas water heater placed on the grounds by the city authorities. A wooden shed houses the heater and a sign on the building calls attention to the fact that hot water is free.

London's Rapid Growth.
Paris was the largest city in the world for several hundred years until about the end of the seventeenth century, when London overtook it. The population in Paris in 1880 was 500,000, while London had reached 530,000, the latter figure showing the rapid growth of trade and commerce during the Tudor period.

Dropped It.
Yes, said Hawkins who had purchased some old silver at auction, this is the old Hawkins family plate. Indeed, said his guest, but surely this is an "A" engraved on it.

Is it? Oh—yes, of course. The original Hawkins were English you know.—Boston Transcript.

REPUBLICANS
taxation program before the legislature George H. Clark was before the Republican caucus last night. He had previously proposed that the legislature should pass on income tax law.

The program of the caucus also contemplates passage of a debt limitation law which has already been introduced and the school relief measure, authorizing a state levy which would raise approximately $17,000,000 to pay increased salaries to school teachers.

The proposition to re-submit a constitutional amendment for the classification of property at the April primaries was discussed at the Republican caucus last night but no action was taken.

It was expected that Governor Cox would veto any bill passed changing the Smith law. If he does an attempt will be made to pass it over his veto.

THE HALLADAY MOTORS CORPORATION presents to you a clean proposition. The offer is made to you solely to enable the company to increase its output, extend prestige and trade lines and generally promote and establish sound, good business now developed to a point where it is ready for expansion.

THIS IS WHAT THE BUCYRUS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SAID ABOUT HALLADAY:

The Bucyrus Chamber of Commerce has made a thorough investigation of The Halladay Motors Corporation and Mr. Huth personally and have found both their moral and financial standing to be first class. The Chamber of Commerce has derived this information from an audit as of October 8, 1919 made by Ernst & Ernst, Certified Public Accountants of Cleveland, Ohio, as well as by a personal investigation made by a Committee of the Chamber of Commerce concerning the past record of The Halladay Motors Corporation Co. and its present officers. Based on these facts, the Chamber of Commerce feels justified in recommending this proposition as a Sound and Conservative Investment.

Money is a servant which you can hire on a COMMON LABOR PAY, or receive for it a princely wage. All stock $100 per share, par, tax free and non-assessable. If you are looking for a safe, conservative investment—yet one which offers unlimited profit-earning possibilities—CLIP OUT COUPON AND MAIL TODAY.

RED CROSS DRIVE MOVING SLOWLY

Official Urges More Generous Response to Enrollment Campaign By Newark and Licking County People.

"The Red Cross membership drive this week has the aspect of being a fizzle, unless there is a greater interest taken in joining," an official of the Red Cross said today. "On Monday the opening day of the campaign, there were but 219 members on Tuesday but 138, and Wednesday the number was but a little over 100," the official pointed out.

"Newark should have at least a 1000 members and they should be secured this week. However unless there is a more liberal attitude taken on the part of the public, this number cannot be attained. The women of the Red Cross are devoting their afternoons at the various stores and public buildings seeking memberships. All is needed is a dollar and a heart," the official concluded.

The Red Cross will also receive memberships by mail. Those who wish to join may send their name with a dollar, to the Red Cross, Trust Building, Newark.

The Red Cross is still looking after soldiers, sailors and marines who were disabled in the service, or those who might be disabled later as a result of injuries received in the service. A service man honorably discharged may make application for disability within one year after discharge.

MUNSEY PURCHASES NEW YORK HERALD

New York, Jan. 15.—Frank A. Munsey, magazine and newspaper publisher who last night purchased the New York Herald and the New York Evening Telegram and the Paris edition of the Herald, said today that he would have no announcement to make concerning his plans for these newspapers until he had a opportunity to study his new properties. He declined to disclose the price paid. While the deal was not completed until last night, he said negotiations had been in progress for several weeks.

The Herald, commenting editorially on the sale, recalls the friendship between Mr. Munsey and the late James Gordon Bennett, and adds:

"The sale of the newspaper to Mr. Munsey is in accordance with the spirit of Mr. Bennett's will, his chief desire as therein expressed being that the Herald be continued and developed, to be an enduring monument to its great founder."

The Herald was founded by James Gordon Bennett Sr., and made its first appearance on May 6, 1835. It passed into the hands of James Gordon Bennett, Jr., upon the elder Bennett's death in 1852. The younger Bennett was active control of the paper until his death in Paris in 1919, although during the later years of his life he made his home abroad and directed the enterprise by cable.

The Herald was perhaps the first newspaper to send reporters great distances to cover news stories and during the civil war had 65 correspondents in the field with the Union armies. Its greatest exploit was under the direction of the younger Bennett, when it sent Henry M. Stanley to Africa to find the explorer, David Livingstone. Ranking with this was the outfitting of the Jeannette arctic expedition. The Stanley enterprise was successful, but the Jeannette was crushed in the ice and her commander perished.

SIGNS FOR U. S. ARMY NEWARK STATION LEADS

James L. Nelson of Nellie, Coshon county, enlisted with Sergeant John M. Barlow at the local army recruiting station at the post office, and was sent to the barracks at Columbus. He enlisted for one year for assignment to the chemical warfare service at Lakehurst Proving Grounds, N. J. Sergeant Barlow states that there are still some vacancies in the Panama canal zone in various branches but enlistments will soon be closed. A number of men are taking advantage of the opportunity to see the canal and the surrounding countries by enlisting for the department. There have been 10 men accepted this month at this station which far exceeds recent records here. There are 65 acceptances in the Columbus district the first 10 days of this month, with Newark leading all sub-stations.

WILL TELL OF 10 YEAR GOOD ROADS PROGRAM

Columbus, Jan. 15.—Recounting of 10 years of highway legislation and building from the time when road improvement was largely a township and abutting property owner affair, until the federal government, state and counties spent $20,000,000 annually for the purpose in Ohio, will feature the tenth annual meeting of the Ohio Good Roads Federation here next Tuesday.

Authors of all highway bills, beginning with that of ex-Representative Carl L. Braun, of Columbus, in 1909, still are living and are on the program.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenrhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of senseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments, and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Evans' Cut Rate drug store has been appointed agent for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.
